Enhancing project quality

Group work

- ☐ How do we define quality?
- ☐ Why it matters?
- ☐ What are the quality characteristics of Interreg projects?

How do we define quality?

Oxford learner's dictionary: The standard of something when it is compared to other things like it

In Interreg: The quality of projects can be defined as the change they help bring about in the programme area

Why quality matters in Interreg

Supporting quality projects is a cornerstone of Interreg, for several key reasons:

Responsible use of taxpayer money

Ensuring resources are managed effectively to achieve impactful outcomes.

Meeting programme objectives and achieving impact

Better alignment with the goals of Interreg programmes to create real, lasting change in the programme areas.

Building trust and visibility

Foster stakeholder confidence and boost Interreg's visibility through clear, impactful results.

Highlighting value of cooperation and enhancing European identity

Benefits of joint efforts across countries to address shared challenges.

Main Interreg project's quality characteristics

Demand driven

Relevant

Result oriented

Based on cooperation

Tell the story

Innovative

Future proof
