If you have questions...

Please use Teams

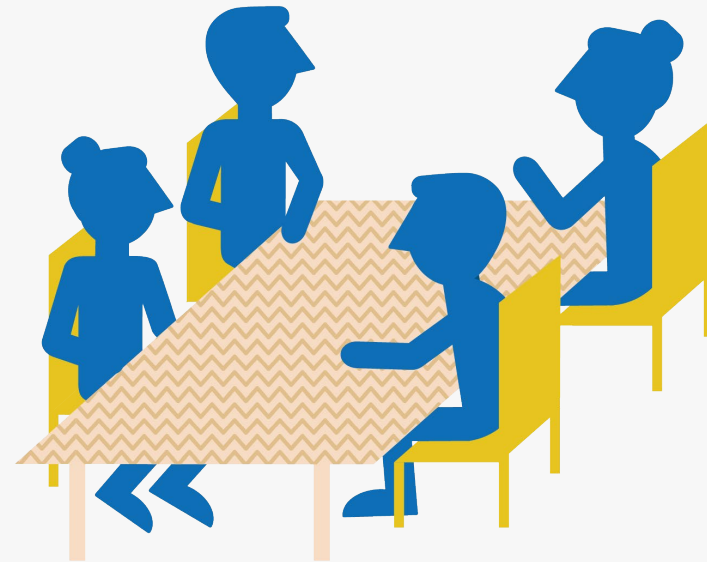

- Teams channel has been created to support exchange and communication.
- Registration issues were addressed quickly in Teams for a group
- Individual emails are slower (but you still get a response!)
- Forms will follow from some sessions, to help steer the session

Good to know

Not sure on the day...

- Conference Support is available at the registration desk
- It is your one-stop shop as a participant, and the place to get answers to any questions, directions to sessions, or similar.
