

EU Neighbours in action: Knowledge across borders

Draft agenda

19 – 20 May 2026

Sava Center, Milentija Popovića 9,
Belgrade | Serbia

EU Neighbours in action:
Knowledge across borders
19-20 May 2026
Belgrade | Serbia

Outline

The EU enlargement and neighbourhood agenda increasingly highlights the strategic importance of cooperation at the EU's external borders. Candidate countries - the Western Balkans countries, Moldova and Ukraine - face significant operational and strategic challenges in implementing cross-border programmes. Ensuring alignment with EU policy objectives, while achieving high-quality results and creating lasting impact in the border regions remains everyday challenge for majority of programmes. At the same time, programme authorities and EU stakeholders continuously seek effective mechanisms to support cooperation, enhance resilience, and promote shared European values.

Objectives

This event provides a platform for exchange, peer learning, and discussion of practical approaches between programme authorities and national stakeholders from both EU and candidate countries.

Participants will be able to:

- Share experiences and good practices across programmes and countries to address common operational and thematic challenges.
- Discuss emerging trends in cross-border cooperation, including project quality, partnership development, communication, and how to create added value of cooperation overall.
- Explore practical solutions to improve programme implementation, strengthen cross-border collaboration, and prepare for operational challenges and opportunities in the post-2027 programming period.
- Consider how external cooperation programmes contribute to the EU agenda, integration, resilience, and the promotion of European values.

Through a combination of thematic workshops, moderated discussions, and networking participants will engage in focused, interactive exchanges aimed at mutual learning, concrete approaches, and strengthening professional networks. The event will enable participants to identify solutions and create new ideas, to reinforce cooperation. This can be used as important input or at least as inspiration to start preparing for the future programming period.

Format

- Thematic workshops: Explore practical examples of implementation, partnership development, communication, and skills needed to achieve success
- World Café discussions: Moderated sessions to discuss shared challenges and practical options.
- Interact knowledge corner: Informal space to share tools, guidance, and publications relevant to programme implementation.

Who is it for

This event is for programme staff and national authorities involved in external cooperation, including:

- Interreg IPA, Interreg NEXT and IPA-IPA programme bodies
- National authorities managing external cooperation programmes

EU Neighbours in action: Knowledge across borders

19-20 May 2026

Belgrade | Serbia

- European Commission services and EU Delegations engaged in enlargement and neighbourhood cooperation

Day One

Tuesday, 19 May 2026

08.30 – 09.00	Registration and Welcome Coffee / Tea
09.00 – 10.30	Plenary: Welcome, success stories and setting the scene Interact and European Commission
10.30 – 11.00	Coffee/Tea break
11.00 – 12.30	3 Parallel sessions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Achieving project quality: what is a good cooperation project, what can programmes do - directly or indirectly - to raise the quality of applications and project implementation; facilitate assessment and selection of good projects; we will brainstorm, share interesting examples, tips and tricks as well as available tools.- Connecting cooperation programmes and EU Macro-regional strategies (MRS) for result uptake and impact: MRS provide a shared cooperation framework for EU and partner countries. This session explores how external cooperation programmes can use MRS to link projects to regional priorities and governance and increase the uptake and impact of results in the Danube and Adriatic Ionian regions.- Visibility sprint - Turning cross-border results into impactful messages: Cross-border programmes deliver real change across and beyond the EU. But that value is not always visible beyond the “usual suspects”. In this interactive Comms Lab, participants will work in groups to exchange ideas on how to transform Interreg achievements (such as project stories or programme data) into citizen-facing messages that demonstrate results, reinforce European values, and support the enlargement and neighbourhood agenda.
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch break

Belgrade | Serbia

13.30 – 14.30

Knowledge corner: discover the world of different tools and information sources to support your work

14.30 – 16.00

3 Parallel sessions:

- Cooperation works - cooperation programmes are all about working together with many stakeholders. Let's talk about skills needed to create good and lasting relationships and networks.
- Creating the right project partnerships: how to bring together the right partners for meaningful cooperation, including those with complementary skills and expertise; how programmes can support, facilitate, and enhance networking, matchmaking, and collaborative project design. We will discuss practical approaches, highlight inspiring examples, and exchange tips, strategies, and tools to build strong partnerships.
- Small actions, big values: Mapping external cooperation's contribution to European values: What is in for candidate countries, and what it is in for the EU? How do grassroots projects in external cooperation translate into meaningful contributions to EU values? This interactive session helps practitioners identify and articulate the values dimension of their work - from small community initiatives to region-wide impact. We'll map the journey from project deliverables to democratic resilience, environmental sustainability, and social inclusion across borders.

16.00 – 16.30

Coffee break

16.30 – 17.30

Agora space: Can cross-border cooperation programmes and projects bring added stability and trust to their regions?

Open debate based on programme and project experiences

This open debate will explore how cross-border cooperation contributes to building trust, stability, and development in regions affected by political, institutional, or socio-economic challenges. Drawing on concrete programme and project experiences, participants will have a chance to reflect on the added value of cooperation in fostering dialogue, strengthening mutual understanding, and supporting long-term stability.
