Tuesday, 09 June 2026

09.30 – 09.40

Welcome and introduction

09.40 – 10.30

Strengthening institutional capacity through ISO1

Interreg programmes and projects examples

- Administrative cooperation in a cross-border context

The selected example will illustrate how ISO1 can support skills development, joint procedures, operational coordination and institutional learning to improve the daily functioning of administrations in a cross-border context.

- Institutional and territorial cooperation for better service delivery

The selected example will explain how ISO1 helps programmes strengthen the capacity of institutions and territorial actors to cooperate more effectively, support better coordination mechanisms and contribute to improved delivery for citizens.

- Strategic coordination and governance in a multi-level cooperation environment

The selected example will focus on how ISO1 supports cooperation across governance levels, sectors and territories, helping institutions move from isolated initiatives towards more coordinated and integrated cooperation approaches.

Followed by a Q/A session.

Objective of the session: Explore how ISO1 enables Interreg programmes to strengthen institutional and administrative capacity in different cooperation contexts. The discussion will focus on the approaches used, the challenges addressed, and the concrete changes made possible through cooperation.

10.30 – 10.50

From experience to guidance (moderated discussion)

Interact
