Strengthening institutional capacity through ISO1

- Administrative cooperation in a cross-border context, Clara Euzénat, Interreg GRENZCAP project manager, & Anne Thevenet, deputy director at Euro-Institut

The select example will illustrate how ISO1 can support skills development, joint procedures, operational coordination and institutional learning to improve the daily functioning of administrations in a cross-border context.

- Institutional and territorial cooperation for better service delivery, Oana Cristea, Head of Unit, Managing Authority for Romania-Serbia IPA CBC programme

The selected example will explain how ISO1 helps programmes strengthen the capacity of institutions and territorial actors to cooperate more effectively, support better coordination mechanisms and contribute to improved delivery for citizens.

- Strategic coordination and governance in a multi-level cooperation environment, Johannes Gabriel, Senior priority officer, Interreg Danube Region

The selected example will focus on how ISO1 supports cooperation across governance levels, sectors and territories, helping institutions move from isolated initiatives towards more coordinated and integrated cooperation approaches.

Followed by a Q/A session.
